

'Do You Blame Us for Boasting?'

CLOTHING.

Chicago.—Paris Clothier Importing Hirsch, Wickwire & Co.'s Lines for His Fall Trade.—M. Charvet, of Paris, a leader of fashions in men's apparel, is importing from Hirsch, Wickwire & Co. American clothing for his fall trade. Dwight S. Hirsch, of the firm, who for the past two years has gone to Europe to select foreign fabrics for its various lines, met M. Charvet while in Paris. The latter became interested in the Hirsch, Wickwire & Co. clothing and placed a liberal order with Mr. Hirsch for the coming season's goods. This, it is believed, is the first instance of American-made clothing being imported to Europe and placed on sale there.

M. Charvet is regarded not only in Paris but throughout Europe as the Tiffany in men's wear. His store is located in one of the most fashionable quarters of Paris, 25 Vendôme place. The above interesting piece of news was first announced in the Ocean Gazette, published on board the Kronprinz Wilhelm on March 16, under the head Chicago Notes. It said: "It has been reported that Dwight Hirsch, of Hirsch, Wickwire & Co., has established an agency for their famous clothing in Paris at Charvet's, the well-known clothier and haberdasher," and this item was wired by the Marconi system to the Associated Press.

M. Charvet believes that the American clothing will create a new field in the old world, and his displaying of these American productions will certainly bring this clothing before the best dressers in the world.—Chicago Daily Trade Record.

In our last advertisement we told you about the "Clothes we sell and why we sell them." This clipping is from the Chicago Daily Trade Record of March 26, 1908, and is one of the many reasons why we sell "HIRSH WICKWIRE & CO.'s" line of ready-for-service clothes.

It is said M. Charvet of Paris, furnished King Edward of London, with many articles of haberdashery. And, no doubt, by now "His Royal Highness" is wearing a Hirsch Wickwire Suit. Yes, this is the line you see displayed in our cabinets every day.

Now all we ask is for you to give us the pleasure of showing you this great line of Considerable land plowed for tobacco has been planted in corn. There are two causes: The prospect for higher price corn, now selling in advance at $3 for some, and the scarcity of tobacco plants. New wheat is being contracted at $1. So much sod has been broken that grazing has advanced to $2.50 to $3 per month. Some tobacco set last week and much will be out this week with favorable season. Light rain fell on Monday evening and Tuesday was cloudy. Grass has been in demand because of diminished acreage.

Things for Breeding Microbes.

Wholesale cutting out of tonsils from the throats of every one subject to tuberculosis was advocated by physicians attending the Fifty-fourth Annual convention of the Illinois Homeopathic Medical association. Tonsils clearly had no friends among the assembled physicians. One described them as "things good for breeding microbes." Another declared that no use for them ever has been found and the agreement was general that their removal checked incipient tuberculosis. "Twelve per cent of the children examined recently," said Dr. Richard Street, "were found infected with incipient tuberculosis. When the tonsils of these children were removed there was complete recovery."

The appendix has been declared useless; now the tonsils are to go. What next will be branded? These parts of the body have a useful purpose, or God, the good and wise Creator, was mistaken.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lameness, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by R. H. White & Co., Druggist.

Given Their Freedom.

At St. Petersburg, Russia, May 13, Lieut. Gen. Stoessel and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff were released from confinement in the fortress at St. Peter and St. Paul by order of Emperor Nicholas. The health of both men has been gravely affected by their confinement.

Gen. Stoessel was found guilty by court martial of surrendering the fortress of Port Arthur to the Japanese, and was serving a sentence of ten years. Nebogatoff was sentenced for the same length of time for surrendering to the enemy at the battle of the Sea of Japan. Stoessel began his sentence March 20, 1908, while Nebogatoff took up his quarters in the fortress April 15, 1907.
